2012 International Conference on Applied Foreign Language Studies

Call for Papers

International Conference on Applied Foreign Language Studies (CAFLS) is an annual conference that provides scholars a forum to exchange professional opinions and seek opportunities of intercollegiate/international academic cooperation.

Following the three successful events in the previous years, CAFLS will aim at issues of content-based, interdisciplinary and cross-cultural studies in the upcoming conference on 8 June 2012. We have proudly invited Prof. Wayne Stein, assistant chair of Department of English, University of Central Oklahoma and Dr. Susan Meyers, assistant professor of Oregon State University, to deliver two speeches about multimedia-assisted teaching and possibilities/predicaments in authentic cross-cultural English composition classrooms.

In addition to the two promising speeches, CAFLS welcomes abstracts on the issues below, and all the submissions will be candidates of Ching Yun Journal of Applied Foreign Language Studies (ISSN 2220-1742).

1. English for specific purposes
2. Cultural and creative industry
3. Cross-cultural studies on literature and arts
4. Teaching Chinese as a foreign language
5. Studies on applied linguistics
6. Translation studies
7. TEFL studies

Prospective presenters are invited to submit abstracts of not more than five hundred words in either MLA or APA formats, with keywords and personal profiles including names, contact information, titles and institutional affiliations. Please email the abstract to Dr. Charles Zheng-wei Chen (bluemoon@cyu.edu.tw). There is no registration fee for the conference; however, all paper presenters and conference attendees are advised to secure travel funding from their own institutions.

Important Dates

1. Abstract deadline: 15 March 2012
2. Notification of acceptance: 30 April 2012
3. Date of conference: 8 June 2012
4. Full Paper submission (If accepted by CYJAFL): 17 September 2012
