About NTU

National Taiwan University (NTU) is a national research university with a main campus located in the center of Taipei city. Founded in 1928, NTU is considered to be among the most prestigious universities in Taiwan. The NTU College of Management, accredited by AACSB International, is home to over 3,600 students and 112 full-time faculty members who publish more than 100 papers annually in SSCI and SCI journals. The College has been actively engaged in the promotion of international academic exchanges and in the formulation of strategies for internationalization, both resulting in the winning of a wide range of acclaims from international academia.

About NCTU

National Chiao Tung University (NCTU) was originally founded in Shanghai, China in 1896, and reestablished in Hsinchu, Taiwan in 1958. Today, NCTU has become a comprehensive university consisting of nine colleges. Its AACSB-accredited College of Management is one of Taiwan's leading business schools, with 2,600 students and 87 full-time faculty members. The College is different from traditional business schools as most faculty members have backgrounds in science and technology and a major in management. The College emphasizes technology-oriented research to pursue an excellent academic position.
